SPREAD THE WORD

This year is moving right along. We are already halfway through February. May and warmer weather is right around the corner, I hope.

Our enrollment for next school year is moving along nicely, but we still have room. Will you help us? The most successful advertising for our school is people talking to other people and telling them about SJS. We want to be able to reach as many families and students as possible to share the love of Christ with them.

As a reminder, by sharing our school with others you can earn a nice credit on your tuition for next year, so why not tell all those people you know that have school aged children about our school. If a family is interested, please direct them to our website or have them reach out to Mrs. Noellsch and she can answer any questions that they may have.

Enjoy your weekend,

Tom
